What is Amtgard?

What does it take to be in Amtgard?

The minimum requirement to play is to be older Than 14 years of age, to fill out a waiver and if under the age of 18 have a parent or legal guardian's legal consent.

Where is Amtgard?

Amtgard is an international organization. Amtgard gatherings can be found throughout the US and in many foreign countries. Wetlands based parks can be found in: Houston | Pasadena | Conroe | Lake Charles Tyler | Beaumont | Texas City | Deer Park College Station | Crockett | Lufkin

The staple of Amtgard gaming is normally in local city parks. However, several times a year we enjoy weekend-long camping events when members of the Wetlands gather at varied campgrounds in Texas and Louisiana.

When is Amtgard?

Within the game, Amtgard is based in medieval elements from before 1650 (pre-gunpowder weapons). In order play the game, you need to have some spare weekend time. Members of Amtgard meet on Saturdays and Sundays. The day of play depends on the park and members typically begin gathering around 2 p.m. Because Amtgaders often travel to periodic gatherings, it is recommended that new players attempt to contact an active park member before attending for the first time. At the very least, check out the event calendar on the website beforehand. Some Amtgaders also gather during the week to practice their fighting and artisan skills.

Amtgard is a fun, free, fantastical way to meet like-minded people, learn new artisan skills, recreate history, expand your imagination, get some exercise and find a sense of camaraderie!
